The Inside Scoop

Classroom lessons are one of the service methods your school counselor uses to present information to students. During Quarter 1 each grade level has received the following information:

- Seniors: Leadership Seminar during Access Period
- Juniors: Graduation requirements, transcripts, and ACT
- Sophomores: Graduation requirements, transcripts, and the RIASEC assessment
- Freshmen: Graduation requirements and introduction to high school

Graduation Requirements

Ohio Dept. of Education has released new graduation requirements which will apply to the class of 2023 (current freshmen). CHS will be holding information sessions for parent/guardians on these current graduation requirements.

Check your student’s Google Classroom or the CHS site for upcoming events!

Events to Add to Your Calendar:

2019 Financial Aid Night, Tues. Oct. 15th @ CHS Auditorium

Juniors and Seniors are invited to learn about the scholarship process, student loans, grants, and how you can minimize your student debt through college.

FAFSA Completion Night (20-21 FAFSA), Mon. Nov. 4th @ CHS Auditorium

FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) is often a complicated process for families. Students and their parent/guardians are invited to complete their FAFSA with help from Muskingum University's financial aid office and your school counselor (you DON'T need to attend Muskingum to come to the event).
